CELEBRATING 60 YEARS

29TH SEPTEMBER TO THE 2ND of OCTOBER

GATES OPEN 28TH AT 9AM FOR ALL COMPETITORS

CHINCHILLA PONY CLUB

Established in 1966, the Chinchilla Pony Club is proud to celebrate 60 years in 2026 by hosting the PCQ Formal, Sporting, Campdraft and Stockman's Challenge State Titles — an exciting milestone for our club and community. Adding to the occasion, we are also in the process of building a brand-new cross-country course, leaving a lasting legacy for future riders.

Our home is the Chinchilla Showgrounds, a fantastic facility made possible through our strong partnerships with the Chinchilla A & P Association and the Chinchilla Campdraft Association. Together, we share volunteers, equipment and resources to successfully host a wide range of local events, including our annual show, rodeos, multiple campdrafts and pony club rallies and competitions. The Showgrounds are also utilised by many other groups, including the Cutting Association and Working Dog Association, showcasing the versatility and strength of our equestrian and agricultural community. We are incredibly proud of these facilities and look forward to sharing them with competitors and visitors from across Queensland.

Chinchilla, known as the “Melon Capital” of Australia, is a welcoming rural town with a strong agricultural heart and country hospitality to match. Located in the Western Downs region, our district is rich in farming, grazing and energy production, while still maintaining a relaxed country charm. Visitors can explore the beautiful Charley's Creek and Botanic Parklands, enjoy local cafes and boutique shopping, visit the Chinchilla Historical Museum, or take a short drive to experience the natural beauty of the surrounding countryside. After your visit this year you might even return and enjoy the famous Chinchilla Melon Festival held every second February.

Our local businesses, service clubs and community groups are enthusiastically supporting this event, and the entire town is looking forward to welcoming competitors, families and supporters. We can't wait to showcase not only a wonderful State Titles competition, but also the warmth, pride and spirit that make Chinchilla such a special place to visit.
